SIZE & DESCRIPTION

4,049± Deeded Acres
40± BLM Lease Acres (to transfer)
640± State of Wyoming Lease Acres (to transfer)
4,729± TOTAL ACRES

The Scheer Grass Ranch is an extremely well-balanced, year-round operation and is divided by US Highway 85 which provides easy, year-round access. Ranch terrain is primarily rolling grassland with draws and ravines which provide protection for livestock. The ranch is cross-fenced into three pastures with 4 and 5 strands of barb wire.

Ample water is provided throughout the ranch by a total of four wells with submersible pumps and four windmills. One submersible well and one windmill are located on the western part of the ranch, and the eastern part of the ranch is provided water by three wells with submersible pumps along with three windmills.

The elevation of the ranch ranges between 4,726 to 4,900 feet above sea level. According to the Natural Resources Conservation Service, the annual precipitation for the area is 14 to 16 inches (30 year average).

LEASE INFORMATION

The State of Wyoming lease, No. 1-8676, attached to the ranch consists of approximately 640 acres rated at 246 AUMs. The state fees for 2011 would be approximately $1,141 (246 AUMs at $4.64 per AUM). The appropriate transfer forms will be prepared for buyer at closing. State leases are renewable every ten-years with the State lease on the Scheer Grass Ranch expiring in January 2015.

The Bureau of Land Management (BLM) lease, allotment #10332, consists of 40± acres and is rated for 10 AUMS. The cost per AUM for BLM leases is $1.35 which equates to an annual cost of $13.50 for the Scheer Grass Ranch. The BLM lease expires in February 2019 and these leases are renewed every 10 years.

Protection for livestock is provided by several draw and rock outcroppings.

CARRYING CAPACITY

The carrying capacity of the Scheer Grass Ranch is owner-rated at approximately 200 cow/calf pairs year-round, or 475 to 500 head of yearling cattle during the summer months.

Note: Carrying capacity can vary due to weather conditions, management practices, and type of livestock. Interested parties should conduct their own analysis.

Submersible wells and windmills located throughout the ranch provide ample water for livestock.

LIVESTOCK MARKETING

Situated in the heart of cattle country, the nearby towns provide excellent agricultural services for the Scheer Grass Ranch. Torrington, the county seat of Goshen County, provides convenient access to machinery and parts as well as two large livestock marketing facilities – one being Wyoming’s largest, nationally-known livestock auction.

SOILS

Soils on the ranch consist of primarily loamy soil which produces excellent species of hardy grasses including native gramma grasses, buffalo grass, black root and sand grasses, as well as western wheat grasses. These soils are predominantly sandier, and are more like the sand hills as opposed to gumbo type soils.

WATER RIGHTS

A complete description of the surface and ground water rights will be readily available to prospective buyers upon request. In the event of a sale, all water rights permitted and adjudicated to the property shall be transferred to the buyer.

Water from the four windmills feed into stock tanks and bottomless tanks in addition to two water storage tanks on the ranch. In addition to the windmills, there are also four wells with submersible pumps strategically located throughout the ranch to insure that water is always available to livestock as well to maximize grazing on the Scheer Grass Ranch.

Located alongside US Highway 85 is a very functional set of working corrals.

NOTES

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Clark & Associates Land Brokers, LLC
(Name of Brokerage Company)

REAL ESTATE BROKERAGE DISCLOSURE

When you select a Real Estate Broker Firm, Broker or sales person (all referred to as "Broker") to assist you in a real estate transaction, the Broker may do so in one of several capacities. In accordance with Wyoming's Brokerage Relationships Act, this notice discloses the types of working relationships that are available to you.

Seller's Agent. (Requires written agreement with Seller)

If a Seller signs a written listing agreement with a Broker and engages the Broker as a Seller's agent, the Broker represents the Seller. On properties listed with other brokerage companies, the Broker may work as an agent for the Seller if the Seller agrees to have the Broker work as a subagent. As an agent or subagent for the Seller, the Broker represents the Seller and owes the Seller a duty of utmost good faith, loyalty, and fidelity in addition to the obligations enumerated below for Intermediaries. Wyo. Stat. § 33-28-303(a). The Seller may be vicariously liable for the acts of the Seller's Agent or Seller's subagent that are approved, directed or ratified by the Seller.

Customer. (No written agreement with Buyer)

A customer is a party to a real estate transaction who has established no intermediary or agency relationship with any Broker in that transaction. A Broker may work as an agent for the Seller treating the Buyer as a customer or as an agent for the Buyer treating the Seller as a customer. Also when a Buyer or Seller is represented by another Broker, a Broker may work with the other Buyer or Seller as a customer, having no written agreement, agency or intermediary relationship with either party. A Broker working with a customer shall owe no duty of confidentiality to a customer. Any information shared with Broker may be shared with the other party to the transaction at customer's risk. The customer should not tell the Broker any information which the customer does not want shared with the other party to the transaction. The customer should not tell the Broker any information which the customer does not want shared with the other party to the transaction. The Broker must treat the customer honestly and with fairness disclosing all material matters actually known by the Broker. The Broker owes the customer the obligations enumerated below for Intermediaries which are marked with asterisks. W.S. § 33-28-310(a).

Buyer's Agent. (Requires written agreement with Buyer)

If a Buyer signs a written Buyer Agency Agreement with a Broker, the Broker will act as an agent for the Buyer. If so, the Broker represents the Buyer and owes the Buyer a duty of utmost good faith, loyalty and fidelity in addition to the obligations enumerated below for Intermediaries. The Buyer may be vicariously liable for the acts of the Buyer's Agent that are approved, directed or ratified by the Buyer. As a Buyer's Agent, Wyoming law requires the Broker to disclose to potential Sellers all adverse material facts, which may include material facts regarding the Buyer's financial ability to perform the terms of the transaction. Wyo. Stat. § 33-28-304(c). As a Buyer's Agent, the Broker has duties to disclose to the Buyer certain information; therefore, the Seller should not tell the Broker any information which the Seller does not want shared with the Buyer.

Intermediary. (Requires written agreement with Seller and/or Buyer)

The Intermediary relationship is a non-agency relationship which may be established between a Broker and a Seller and/or a Broker and a Buyer. A Seller may choose to engage a Broker as an Intermediary when listing a property. A Buyer may also choose to engage a Broker as an Intermediary. An Intermediary shall not act as an agent or advocate for any party and shall be limited to providing those services set forth below. Wyo. Stat. § 33-28-305.

As an Intermediary (Non-Agent), Broker will not represent you or act as your agent. The parties to a transaction are not legally responsible for the actions of an Intermediary and an Intermediary does not owe the parties the duties of an agent, including the fiduciary duties of loyalty and fidelity. Broker will have the following obligations to you:

- perform the terms of any written agreement made by the Intermediary with any party or parties to the transaction;
- exercise reasonable skill and care;*
- advise the parties to obtain expert advice as to material matters about which the Intermediary knows but the specifics of which are beyond the expertise of the Intermediary;*
- present all offers and counteroffers in a timely manner;*
- account promptly for all money and property the Broker received;*
- keep you fully informed regarding the transaction;*
- obtain the written consent of the parties before assisting the Buyer and Seller in the same real estate transaction as an Intermediary to both parties to the transaction;
- assist in complying with the terms and conditions of any contract and with the closing of the transaction;*
- disclose to the parties any interests the Intermediary may have which are adverse to the interest of either party;
- disclose to prospective Buyers, known adverse material facts about the property;*
- disclose to prospective Sellers, any known adverse material facts, including adverse material facts pertaining to the Buyer's financial ability to perform the terms of the transaction;*
- disclose to the parties that an Intermediary owes no fiduciary duty either to Buyer or Seller, is not allowed to negotiate on behalf of the Buyer or Seller, and may be prohibited from disclosing information about the other party, which if known, could materially affect negotiations in the real estate transaction.

As Intermediary, the Broker will disclose all information to each party, but will not disclose the following information without your informed consent:

- the motivating factors for buying or selling the property;
- that you will agree to financing terms other than those offered, or
- any material information about you, unless disclosure is required by law or if lack of disclosure would constitute dishonest dealing or fraud.

Change From Agent to Intermediary – In – House Transaction

If a Buyer who has signed a Buyer Agency Agreement with the Broker wants to look at or submit an offer on property Broker has listed as an agent for the Seller, the Seller and the Buyer may consent in writing to allow Broker to change to an Intermediary (non-agency) relationship with both the Buyer and the Seller. Wyo. Stat. § 33-28-307.

An established relationship cannot be modified without the written consent of the Buyer or the Seller. The Buyer or Seller may, but are not required to, negotiate different commission fees as a condition to consenting to a change in relationship.

Designated Agent. (requires written designation by the brokerage firm and acknowledgement by the Buyer or Seller)

A designated agent means a licensee who is designated by a responsible broker to serve as an agent or intermediary for a Seller or Buyer in a real estate transaction. Wyo. Stat. § 33-28-301 (a)(x).

In order to facilitate a real estate transaction a Brokerage Firm may designate a licensee as your agent or intermediary. The Designated Agent will have the same duties to the Buyer and Seller as a Buyer's or Seller's Agent or Intermediary. The Broker or an appointed "transaction manager" will supervise the transaction and will not disclose to either party confidential information about the Buyer or Seller. The designation of agency may occur at the time the Buyer or Seller enters into an agency agreement with the Brokerage Firm or the designation of agency may occur later if an "in house" real estate transaction occurs.

At that time, the Broker or "transaction manager" will immediately disclose to the Buyer and Seller that designated agency will occur.

Duties Owed by An Agent But Not Owed By An Intermediary.

WHEN ACTING AS THE AGENT FOR ONE PARTY (EITHER BUYER OR SELLER), BROKER HAS FIDUCIARY DUTIES OF UTMOST GOOD FAITH, LOYALTY, AND FIELITY TO THAT ONE PARTY. A BROKER ENGAGED AS AN INTERMEDIARY DOES NOT REPRESENT THE BUYER OR THE SELLER AND WILL NOT OWE EITHER PARTY THOSE FIDUCIARY DUTIES. HOWEVER, THE INTERMEDIARY MUST EXERCISE REASONABLE SKILL AND CARE AND MUST COMPLY WITH WYOMING LAW. AN INTERMEDIARY IS NOT AN AGENT OF ADVOCATE FOR EITHER PARTY. SELLER AND BUYER SHALL NOT BE LIABLE FOR ACTS OF AN INTERMEDIARY, SO LONG AS THE INTERMEDIARY COMPLIES WITH THE REQUIREMENTS OF WYOMING'S BROKERAGE RELATIONSHIPS ACT. WYO. STAT. § 33-28-306(a)(iii).

THIS WRITTEN DISCLOSURE AND ACKNOWLEDGMENT, BY ITSELF, SHALL NOT CONSTITUTE A CONTRACT OR AGREEMENT WITH THE BROKER OR HIS/HER FIRM. UNTIL THE BUYER OR SELLER EXECUTES THIS DISCLOSURE AND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT, NO REPRESENTATION AGREEMENT SHALL BE EXECUTED OR VALID. WYO. STAT. § 33-28-306(b).

NO MATTER WHICH RELATIONSHIP IS ESTABILSHED, A REAL ESTATE BROKER IS NOT ALLOWED TO GIVE LEGAL ADVICE. IF YOU HAVE QUESTIONS ABOUT THIS NOTICE OR ANY DOCUMENT IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION, CONSULT LEGAL COUNSEL AND OTHER COUNSEL BEFORE SIGNING.

The amount or rate of a real estate commission for any brokerage relationships is not fixed by law. It is set by each Broker individually and may be negotiable between the Buyer or Seller and the Broker.
